YOU DON'T LIKE ICE-CREAM

For those of you who are ice cream lovers, did you know that besides tasting great, the flavour of ice cream you choose to eat reveals a lot about your personality?

Select your favourite flavour.

CHOCOLATE CHIP

You sincerely believe that everything around you is beautiful, even though other people may not notice. You are a determined person and set high goals for your life.

VANILLA

You are friendly and easygoing. People feel comfortable around you so it is not a surprise that many friends surround you. You have high self-esteem and will not let anyone get you down.

STRAWBERRY

You are affectionate, giving and loving. You are very understanding of others which makes you a person others want to be with.

COFFEE

You have confidence in your ability to get things done. You are a leader among friends, and a good one too. You are responsible and like to challenge yourself by taking up difficult tasks--and you usually succeed.

MIXED FLAVOURS

You are a negotiator. You will do anything you can to avoid open conflict so you never start quarrels. You will give in when you think it's appropriate but you can be doggedly persistent when you know that justice is on your side.

CHOCOLATE

You are a sensitive person and often find yourself daydreaming about your past and future. You are quite conservative and the values that your parents and teachers instilled in you still play an important part in your decision making.

PEANUT BUTTER

You like to be helpful and are generous with your time, so friends often come to you when they have problems. You are very patient and thoughtful, and you give your friends useful advice every time.

YOU DON'T LIKE ICE-CREAM

A lot of people fall into this category. If you don't like ice cream it means that you are an independent, free-spirited person who won't let anything get in the way of your freedom.
