Psychologists believe that what you wear is a good reflection of what type of person you are.

What is the favourite style of jeans you wear?

BAGGY JEANS

Wearing baggy or oversized jeans is a sign of people who are somewhat insecure, lack self confidence, and feel inferior to others. Others wear them to conceal their temperament or for simple reasons such as hiding their less than perfect figure.

BASIC JEANS

If you like to wear your basic blue jeans, not tight, baggy, decorated or whatever, you are content with your current status and life style. You normally wear jeans only when it's appropriate to do so. Sounds like a real gentleman or lady doesn't it?

BELL-BOTTOMED JEANS

If you like the sixties type of bell-bottomed jeans or as a matter of fact, styles that belong to the previous generation, it probably means that you are fixated with the past and refused to grow up. Changing isn't all that bad--everyone does so why not give it a try?

COVERALL JEANS

Farmer-type coverall jeans are what we normally see worn by young kids. Those who like this type of jeans aren't necessary youthful or playful, but want to show off to everyone that they are serious persons and really do mean what they say. Kind of down to earth like a hard working farmer. On the other hand, it could also mean that they are trying to project this image as well.

DECORATED JEANS

Those who like jeans that are decorated with patches, ornaments or what have you, want to show that they are unique and creative. They like to flaunt their artistic talents to others in other words.

DESIGNER JEANS

If you like to wear ready-made designer jeans, boutique jeans, tailored jeans, particularly from a well known designer, and love to show off that label to the world, you are a typical person who is striving for status. You aren't really satisfied with what you currently are, and are looking for that extra recognition from people around you. What better way to do it than by wearing a really well known pair of designer jeans!

FADED JEANS

People who adore old worn out jeans show that they are just plain simple, down-to-earth persons who aren't hung up with money or status symbols.

PRESSED JEANS

It is unusual as jeans are meant to be casual wear and you don't have to really pay much attention to in terms of caring for them. People who like their jeans neatly pressed tend to be very organized, cautious, rigid. Most likely, they are also fussy about their food and living surroundings as well. These people love to plan ahead and follow the plan, and hence can be quite inflexible on how they do things.

TIGHT JEANS

People who wear body-hugging jeans that everyone can pretty much see every curve of their body is a sign of those with high sexual drive. Now, it doesn't mean that these persons are promiscuous or anything, but just shows that they enjoy showing off their sex appeal and attract attention from the opposite sex, or in certain cases the same sex.

ALL STYLES OF JEANS

Some people do collect all types of jeans as listed. This definitely shows that they also have a collection of personalities as well. One thing is for sure, these persons are very adaptable, changing with the times, and probably get bored very quickly. In other words, they do what they feel like at the spur of the moment.
