Have you ever noticed which of your dishes and plates you particularly like to use? Your favourite tableware can indicate something about the type of person you are.

Pick your style.

WHITE

Simplicity is your signature style. You like to stick to your daily routine and don't mind at all that there's not much excitement in your life. You are sensible and well in control of your emotions.

BRIGHT AND COLOURFUL

Choosing to use red, orange or yellow tableware shows that you are a cheerful, optimistic kind of person. You love to have fun and nothing will stop you from going to parties and meeting lots of people.

DARK

Using dark blues and browns means that you are frank, honest and determined. You are no-nonsense, you're punctual, and you don't like to have to wait for other people either. People have respect for you.

GRAPHIC

A block-like design on your tableware indicates that you are an adventurous soul. Your life is full of excitement. You cannot stay still for long and are always on the lookout for something new and daring to do. Your motto is something like "Live life to the fullest."

PICTURE

Cartoons or flowers on your tableware show that you are a dedicated family person. You like your family to be in a warm and loving atmosphere. You are loyal to the person you love.

SMALL AND SIMPLE

Tableware with small polka dots or stripes around the edges indicates that you don't like telling lies. You don't talk for the sake of talking and think seriously before you open your mouth to say something. You like to watch changes that occur over a period of time; you're patient and introverted.

SHAPE

Printed shapes such as of leaves or fruits indicate that you are a creative person with plenty of imagination. You are a true friend and loyal to your love ones. Justice is one of the principles you live by.

SQUARE

Square or rectangular shapes mean you are a confident person. You like to make constructive suggestions when problem-solving and you enjoy taking the lead when you're among friends. Your abilities mean that your friends don't mind this at all.
