You are taking a trip out of town. On the way, you realize that you've forgotten something.

What is it?

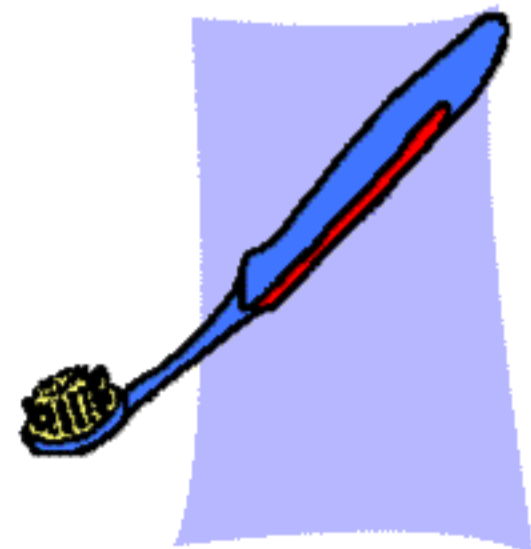

SNACKS

You'd like to be pleased. You think doing something for others is important. You are a careful thinker and a pretty neat person. Whatever you do, you devote all your efforts to it. However, when things go bad, you don't want to take responsibility for your faults.

TOOTHBRUSH

Selecting this item means you understand things around you well. However, when you want to prove that you are right, you are likely to insist with the words "yes, yes, yes", but don't offer further explanation.

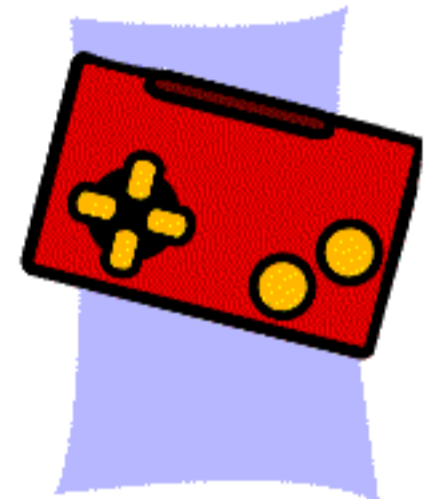

UMBRELLA

You care for people. Other people's small matters easily shock you. You look brave, but in fact you are hiding weaknesses inside. You often talk about your faults or things that you think you could have done better again and again, though no one criticizes you about them.

PORTABLE MACHINE GAME

You would like to compete and win others over but you hide your ambitions inside. Instead of using physical violence, you use words as your weapon. You have the ability to get your friends really mad very easily.
