PRESENT SIMPLE DICE GAME

This is a game for 2-4 players (or teams). Before playing the game revise or pre-teach the vocabulary used in the activity.

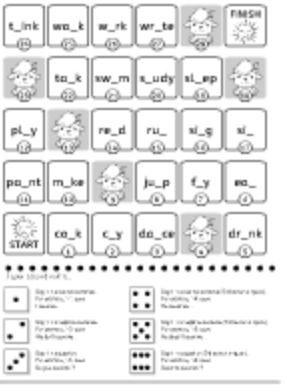
Roll a dice twice. Move your marker forward the number of spaces shown on the first roll dice and find the missing letter in the verb in the box you land on. The second roll shows your grammar task. For example:

Your first roll - number 3.
You move from the box 24
to the box 27.
The missing letter in wr_te is i.

Your second roll - number 2.
Your task: Say it in a negative sentence.
I don't write poems.

The first child to reach the finish line is the winner.

MATERIALS



a game board

a dice, a marker for each player

If your second roll is...

Say it in a positive sentence.
For example, 1-1: cook. I cook well.

Say it in a negative sentence.
For example, 1-2: cook. We don't cook well.

Say it in a question.
For example, 1-3: cook. Do you cook well?

Say it in a positive sentence (3rd person singular).
For example, 1-4: cook. He cooks well.

Say it in a negative sentence (3rd person singular).
For example, 1-5: cook. He doesn't cook well.

Say it in a question (3rd person singular).
For example, 1-6: cook. Does he cook well?

TRAP BOXES (4, 9, 13, 18, 23, 28)

They make the game more exciting and fun.
Teachers can invite and add their own instructions, or use our ideas.

If you land on a trap box, you have to follow your teacher's instruction!

SOME IDEAS

4. Miss a turn or sing an English song.

9. Move back to the start.

13. Go back one space.

18. Miss a turn or walk like a duck.

23. Miss a turn or jump four times.
